

U.S. Embassy in Warsaw and The American Studies Center of University of Warsaw

has the pleasure to announce a guest lecture by

Dr. Richard Wolin

Distinguished Professor of History at the Graduate Center of the City University of New York

Intellectuals and Contemporary Politics

Tuesday, February 22, 10.45-12.15, room 317

Al. Niepodległości 22

(during dr Sylwia Kuźma-Markowska's class)

Richard Wolin, Distinguished Professor of History at the Graduate Center of the City University of New York, has taught at Reed College, Rice University, and the University of Paris. He is the author of Heidegger's Children: Hannah Arendt, Karl Löwith, Hans Jonas, and Herbert Marcuse, The Seduction of Unreason: the Intellectual Romance with Fascism from Nietzsche to Postmodernism, and, most recently, The Wind From the East: French Intellectuals, the Cultural Revolution and the Legacy of the 1960s (all published by Princeton University Press). He frequently writes on political themes for the Nation, Dissent, and the New Republic. His books have been translated into ten languages. He has previously lectured in Lodz, Krakow, and Warsaw.