

Frankie Sturm

Presidential Debates 2012: Close Analysis of Strategies and Tactics

BIO

Frankie Sturm is Deputy Cultural Attaché at the U.S. Embassy in Warsaw. Prior to joining the State Department, he worked as communications director for the Truman National Security Project, helping candidates and activists prepare for speeches, give interviews, and write newspaper/magazine articles. He worked as a deputy field organizer for a congressional campaign in Wyoming in 2008, and from 2004-2006 he was an English language instructor in Rouen, France. Frankie holds a Masters in International Relations from the University of Chicago and a BA in History from the University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign. He is a native of Chillicothe, Illinois.