

Monika Płatek

"What's Good for us in the Bad American Criminal Policy"

ABSTRACT

The lecture will concentrate on the relation between prison, state economy, and resocialization cliché discourse. The comparison between Poland and US will be used to illustrate differences and similarities in the way the prison system is ab/used. The difference in present coping with fakes and falls in the US and Polish criminal policy will be discussed.